From our service with Andrew Croft - 30th June excerpts from Romans 13:1-7

Let everyone be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. Then do what is right and you will be commended. For the one in authority is God's servant for your good. This is also why you pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, who give their full time to governing. Give to everyone what you owe them: if you owe taxes, pay taxes; if revenue, then revenue; if respect, then respect; if honour, then honour.

MRBC Prayer Points

Our World and our Nation

- For those affected by war, natural disasters or climate change
- For those most affected by the cost-of-living crisis
- For those facing persecution for their faith

From the BU Prayer Diary

Following the General Election, this week we pray for our newly elected government. Pray that whoever is in power they may act with integrity and honesty, prioritising the common good over personal or party interests; and for policies that promote justice, equity, and care for the marginalised, reflecting Christ's love and compassion.
